Superintendent Grishman Named Educator of the Year

By Denise Nash

Jericho Superintendent Hank Grishman was recently named Educator of the Year by the Korean Parent Association of Long Island (KPALI).

“It is our extreme pleasure to acknowledge Mr. Grishman’s dedication to education and his fine work with our children,” said Minsun Kim, president of KPALI.

Grishman was honored, along with Plainview-Old Bethpage Superintendent Gerard Dempsey, at the Harvest Moon Festival, which was held on October 29.

“I am honored and humbled to receive this distinction from the Korean Parent Association of Long Island,” said Grishman.

KPALI is an organization dedicated to the advocacy of Korean cultural awareness. For more information, email info@kpali.org.
