

We Need Your Vote!

Support Jackson Students
Emily Jiang and Amaan Rahman

Two Jackson Elementary students, Emily Jiang and Amaan Rahman, have been selected as national finalists in the McGraw-Hill "What Art Means to Me" Art Contest.

Prizes total $30,000, so this is a much sought after prize. Jericho's students are presently in second and third place in the vote for the winners.

How to vote:

Please go to: <http://mymath.shycast.com>

1. In upper right hand corner, click "Sign Up"
2. Fill in your information
3. Click "sign up" bottom of page
4. Scroll to "3rd Grade" Find "Math Angel" and click on this title
5. YOU MUST PRESS GREEN "Vote for This" button to right of picture to register your vote.

Because we have 2 Finalists, arrow back twice to get to the list of finalists or please log out and just sign back in....

1. Scroll to 5th Grade
2. Find "Step by Step...Stairway to Learning"
3. Click on GREEN "VOTE for THIS" button.