Check Presented To September 11 Charities

On September 11, 2011, the Jericho High School National Honor Society, along with the entire student body, raised $25,000 during a district-wide walkathon to honor the memory of those lost on September 11, 2001. During the November Board of Education meeting, donations were presented to MyGoodDeed, Cantor Fitzgerald Relief Fund, Peter Alderman Foundation, Tribute WTC Visitor Center and the Susan M. Clyne Fund. Pictured are members of the Board of Education, administration as well as National Honor Society students, the volunteer parent committee and the recipients of the donations.
