Jericho Named Athletic School of Distinction

Executive Director for Interscholastic Athletics, Nassau BOCES, Todd Heimer (L) presents John Mankowich (center), the Jericho Curriculum Associate for Health, Physical Education and Athletics, and Jericho Superintendent Hank Grishman (right) with the NYSPHSAA 2010-2011 “School of Distinction” Award. Jericho qualified for this prestigious award after 100% of all varsity teams during the 2010-2011 school year were declared Scholar/Athlete Teams with academic averages above 90%. This is the seventh year in a row that Jericho has been designated a “School of Distinction,” which is the most of any school in New York State. Jericho also had five teams that earned Scholar Athlete Team State Championships.
