

Jericho High School Donates Food

Jericho High School staff and students recently participated in a food drive to benefit the Ronald McDonald House. Jericho Fire Department stopped by the high school and picked up the more than 1,700 cans of food that were donated.