

ITALIAN AMERICANS IN GOVERNMENT SERVICES

ALFRED F. SAMENGA, JR.
MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

The Italian Americans in Government Services (IAIGS) is proud to announce our twelfth annual scholarship available to students of Italian heritage graduating any high school in Nassau or Suffolk County in 2009. Our scholarship has been named in memory of Alfred F. Samenga, Jr.

Two scholarships will be awarded. The amount of each scholarship is $1,000.00. The scholarships are presented to the recipients together with a plaque, at IAIGS' Annual Columbus Day Dinner in October 2009.

In order to qualify for the scholarship, students must complete the attached application and return same no later than June 12, 2009 together with:

- their high school transcript, and
- an essay not to exceed one typed page in length, on either of the following topics:
 - “What It Means To Me To Be An Italian-American”, or
 - “My Italian-American Role Model”, or
 - “How I Honor My Italian Heritage”
- a brief explanation of any special circumstances to be considered

Christopher J. LaManna, Esq.
Scholarship Chairman
