

Gale Biography in Context: contains biographies from respected Gale reference sources and full-text articles from hundreds of periodicals. You can search for people by their name or by using personal facts such as birth and death year, nationality, ethnicity, occupation or gender. To access this database from the Jericho Middle School Library website:

- Click on Databases
- Click on Gale Databases (Gale is the service that provides access to several databases for a fee.)
- On the InfoTrac Screen Click Proceed.
- You will need a Password for home access
- Click on Gale Biography in Context
- Type a name in the search box & click search.

Name Occupation Nationality Birth Place Death Place

Christopher Columbus Search Name

Person Search Advanced Search

- Look at the different types of articles available about your person.
- You can read the beginning of the article to help you select the best one for your research.
- Click on the article you want to get it.
- Read and take notes. If you need the article you can click the print icon to print it.

Reference View All 41

Christopher Columbus

Encyclopedia of Western Colonialism since 1450, 2007

Christopher Columbus was an Italian navigator and explorer whose four voyages to the Americas "opened the gates" for...

News View All 165

Seeking Columbus's Origins. With a Swab

The New York Times, October 8, 2007

When schoolchildren turn to the chapter on Christopher Columbus's humble origins as the son of a weaver in Genoa, they...

Magazines View All 16

Who sailed the ocean blue? The true story of Columbus and...

School Library Journal, September 2009

If your library is like mine, then most of the Columbus-related books in your collection are exactly 17 years old....

- At the bottom of the article is the Source Citation information.
This is what you need to know to cite your article using NoodleBib:

Source Citation:
"Christopher Columbus." Historic World Leaders. Gale, 1994. Gale Biography In Context. Web. 22 Sept. 2010.