

Motivation

- What events or circumstances motivated or inspired this person to get involved in his line of work?
 - early interests?
 - family crisis?
 - poverty?
 - wealth or exceptional education?
- Include a graphic.
 - scan a picture or your own drawing
 - use clip art
 - copy an image from the Web

Accomplishments

- In what industry or industries was your person involved?
- What did this person accomplish during the Rise of Industry in the late 1800s?

Use short descriptive phrases
Add details in notes section
Include a graphic.

What economic impact did your leader's work have on America? (money & business)

- For industrial leaders, how did their work or invention impact the economy of the United States?
- For labor leaders, what impact did they have on wages and benefits (medical insurance, sick pay, vacation pay, overtime)?

Use short descriptive phrases
Add details in notes section
Include a graphic.

What social impact did your leader's work have on America? (work conditions & lifestyle)

- For industrial leaders, how did their work or invention impact the lives of the people of the United States?
- For labor leaders, what impact did they have on their unity, working conditions, hours & days?

Use short descriptive phrases
Add details in notes section
Include a graphic.

What political impact did your leader's work have on America? (laws & corruption)

- For industrial leaders, how did their work or invention impact the government & the laws of the United States?
- For labor leaders, what impact did they have on specific work laws (minimum wage, child labor laws, & ability to legally unionize)?

Use short descriptive phrases
Add details in notes section
Include a graphic.

What impact did your leader's work have on America today?

- For Industrial Leaders, were they robber barons or captains of industry?
- How did labor leaders help out labor unions today?

Use short descriptive phrases
Add details in notes section
Include a graphic.